Plantation Regatta

Many thanks again to the Frys hosting the regatta at their summer place in St Mary's City and especially for a fine barbecue afterwards. And to Bill Rogers and Sue Schneider for handling the race committee work. The weather was fine with clear skies and a reasonably steady light breeze out of the north with a few puffs to keep it interesting. None of the course marks needed to be moved. There were occasional holes in the breeze that were very difficult to see ahead of time which threw a bit of luck into the racing equation, but they really didn't get drastic until the final (fourth) race. Everyone was well behaved with no over earlys and no fouls, although Hank and Bill once found themselves in an interesting situation with both stalled out into the wind beside each other and the committee boat at the finish line - but they managed to survive it. There were only a few jellyfish but no one went for a swim to say hello to them. Hank had to hop out onto a local dock a couple of times to fix a loose halyard but he managed just fine. The last several places were very close. The final standings were: 1. Geoff Schneider, 2. Brian Taliaferro, 3. Bill Schneider, 4. Bill Fry, 5. Hank Muma, 6. Chisholm McAvoy, 7. John Oliver, 8(tie). Ruth Lambert, 8 (tie). Dave Lewis, & 10. Noon.

September 6th - The President's/Leukemia Cup Regatta presented by the Potomac River Sailing Association at the Washington Sailing Marina.

The next, and final, regatta this year will be on Saturday, September 6th at the Washington Sailing Marina. It will be a one day regatta on Saturday for us. Registration is from 8:30 to 10:00am, or can be done online ahead of time.

Please: register online or let Bill Schneider know you are planning to attend (home phone 410-757-4729 - or email) so we can let PRSA know ahead of time about how many to expect. We will need at least 5 boats to play.

I'll be will be flying back all day/evening on Friday from Bogota, Columbia. I will be there to meet with some government people and scientists fro the week before the race. If I fall asleep during the race, wake me up, but only if I'm on port tack.

The PRSA website has posted the Notice of Race with all the extra information, including registration information, at <http://potomacriversailing.org/PresidentsLeukemiaCups/2008/index.html>

The El Toro Web Site is well worth looking at! There is a lot of work that goes into such a great presentation. It will be worth your time. Kelli Cook is doing a marvelous job.
