TOTALLY DINGHY this weekend

Registration is "on-line" ,,,follow,,,richmondyc.org,,,upcoming events,,,total dinghy,,,registration,,,

There are more Opti's pre-registered than El Toro's

The suggestion has been made that only Saturdays races be counted fro the El Toro Season Championship,,,we can do this,,,

Plan to attend the RYC Total Dinghy Regatta, September 20-21. The El Toro Class will be providing PRO and START BOAT on a separate starting line. You can be assured of square lines and fast turn-around for fleet starts. Yes this means we will have a starting line to leeward and a separate finish-line to weather.

We will be sailing inside Potrero Reach. This is where we always sail.
(not outside in killer cove)

The local Richmond El Toro Fleet would like to offer their hospitality for over-night accommodations for those from out-side the area, Please feel free to ask for a place to stay, we will all be better friends for it.

The El Toro Web Site is well worth looking at! There is a lot of work that goes into such a great presentation. It will be worth your time.
Kelli Cook is doing a marvelous job.
