Hi all,

I have a guest bedroom ( double bed) as well as a Grand Banks 32 as well as window seats and floor space that are 2 blocks from the RYC. I challenge you to drag your El Toro out and beat me on the race course. Come for the weekend of racing. You have a place to stay. Call me: 510-236-8098 or 510-734-1490.

You will be able to register for this weekend by showing up at Richmond Yacht Club and using the 'in-house' computer and paying with a check!

TOTALLY DINGHY this week end

Registration is "on-line" ,,follow,,richmondyc.org,,upcoming events,,total dinghy,,registration,,

There are more Opti's pre-registered than El Toro's

The suggestion has been made that only Saturdays races be counted fro the El Toro Season Championship,,we can do this,,

Plan to attend the RYC Total Dinghy Regatta, September 20-21. The El Toro Class will be providing PRO and START BOAT on a separate starting line. You can be assured of square lines and fast turn-around for fleet starts. Yes this means we will have a starting line to leeward and a separate finish-line to weather.

We will be sailing inside Potrero Reach. This is where we always sail.
(not outside in killer cove)

The local Richmond El Toro Fleet would like to offer their hospitality for over-night accommodations for those from out-side the area, Please feel free to ask for a place to stay, we will all be better friends for it.

The El Toro Web Site is well worth looking at! There is a lot of work that goes into such a great presentation. It will be worth your time.
Kelli Cook is doing a marvelous job.
