Racing was held in perfect 'trade-wind' conditions in winds of 8 to 10 with a few puffs to 12. Neil did win race 5 but it is Kiana with a perfect score. Neil is in a beautiful spot, in-between two sisters because Kahealani was third. Kahealani and Josselyn had exactly the same score but it is the last race position that breaks the tie.

In the two Senior races, the young Kaneohe boys continue to set the pace. All five spots in both races went to Hawaiians, (exact results tomorrow). John Pacholski and Fred Paxton set the pace today for the mainlanders with a 5th and 6th. The Master Mariner of the day was Bruce Bradfute when his halyard came apart from the mast head. He completely de-rigged, dropped the mast, threaded the sail back on, re-stepped the mast, boom and finished the race!
