Sequoia Yacht Club Cork Screw Race

October 18th, Redwood City Launch Ramp

This may determine the 2014 Season champion. Fred Paxton and Art Lange are so close in points that this last race just may determine the 2014 champ!

The prognosticators of the weather have dropped rain from the Saturday forecast. This is good news for the Cork Screw El Toro Regatta.

The race usually starts about noon but be there earlier. The launching ramp is the staging area for El Toro's and the race committee.
