Another evening of breeze. Regrettably Tony injured his foot and was unable to compete.

The next two weeks, Art and Paul will be sailing, but not at Pinecrest. Aug 2 is the practice day before the NA's Thursday through Saturday. This will be at Richmond Yacht Club. The rest of you might consider coming up observe. I expect that the race committee could use an extra hand and will get you out to the course.

The following weekend are the World's at Pinecrest. There is El Toro racing all summer because of people with cabins in the area. So those who have vacation available like to arrive a few days before the "official" racing to enjoy the mountains and the sailing.
